
Bill Tennant Band on PS Waverley, Glasgow, 1976

Joe McGroarty violin, Bill Tennant accordion and Bill Smith concertina

Photograph by degahk@yahoo.co.uk

“Long associated with Caledonian Steam Packet steamers the band transferred to the WAVERLEY when CalMac decided that they didn't fit into the new image of the QUEEN MARY II. The band's finest moment was playing 'Amazing Grace' during the grounding of the WAVERLEY on the Gantocks!”

A Scottish Musical Miscellany

Concertina 1.6 Summer 2011